All Seeing Eye introduces Jackson Lee, a tough living, bad-ass, psychic, who gets drawn into a bizarre plot that pulls him to the limits of his abilities, and sanity.
Despite flirting with melodrama, Thurman successfully pulls together the supernatural, familial drama, action and a more than healthy dose of humour.

All Seeing Eye is more of a mystery thriller than that it is of the fantasy genre, but if you liked Thurman's previous works your certainly going to love this one. The All Seeing Eye mainly is about Jack. Jack grew up as the average white punk from the bottom ring of American society. White trash as he himself describes it.
